Community Music Festival & Music from the Movies

An afternoon & evening of music & cultural diversity
CARY HALL, SATURDAY MAY 6, 2017, 2 PM–10 PM

A fun, family-friendly day and evening celebrating cultural diversity and exceptional music! Music from the Movies concert, presented by Lexington Symphony, brings music from the big screen to Cary Hall. Don't miss a special opportunity to support a beloved cultural institution, create goodwill and raise your company's visibility!

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

2–5 PM | Community Music Festival on the Main Stage

Symphony quintet performance of Peter and the Wolf, a cappella singers, Indian music and dance, traditional Chinese music, Lexington High School Jazz ensembles — and much more!

2–5 PM | Community Music Festival Downstairs

Activities include instrument “petting zoo,” a chance to be a conductor, face painting and more.

7:30–10 PM | Music from the Movies

Lexington Symphony Concert with special guests. Explore the vital role music plays in setting the mood and telling a story in film. Performance of great music from the movies featuring memorable favorites and some behind the scenes surprises!
