

SATURDAY MAY 6, 2017

Community Music Festival | 2PM-5PM FREE!

Music from the Movies | 7:30PM, PURCHASE TICKETS:

online: www.lexingtonsymphony.org or by phone: 781.523.9009

Join Lexington Symphony and conductor and music director Jonathan McPhee for this two-part event! An afternoon festival with performances by local artists followed by Lexington Symphony's evening of celebrated music from the big screen. This family-friendly event was the talk of the town last season. Don't miss out. Evening tickets sell fast!

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Tentative line-up, please check website for specific Festival schedule

2-5 PM | Main Stage Community Music Festival

Lexington Symphony Quintet performs Peter and the Wolf

Great Meadows Chamber Orchestra

Eastern Rhythm - Indian Classical Dance Group

Lexington High School - Jazz and choral ensembles

SNAP (Special Needs Arts Program) Chorus

Project STEP Musicians

Boston Guzheng Ensemble

Vocal Revolution, winners of WGBH's 'Sing That Thing'

2-5 PM | Downstairs Community Music Festival

Instrument "Petting Zoo" - Try out an instrument!

"You Can Be a Conductor!" - Take the baton & lead the Lexington Symphony string quartet

Information Tables - Learn about the performing ensembles

Activities - Face painting and more

7:30PM | Main Stage Music from the Movies

Concert by Lexington Symphony

Explore the vital role music plays in setting the mood and telling a story in film. Performance of great music from the movies featuring memorable favorites and some behind the scenes surprises!

Lexington Symphony is a professional orchestra dedicated to bringing beautiful music to our community and providing educational outreach programs.

Cary Hall, 1605 Massachusetts Avenue, Lexington, MA | 781.523.9009 | www.lexingtonsymphony.org

Thank you to our sponsors!

WINGATE
Wealth Advisors

BrooklineBank

Barrett Sotheby's International Realty; Genesis HR Solutions; Joyce Murphy, The Murphy Group, William Raveis; Tarpey Insurance Group; Wilson Farm; Brian Yurovich, Edward Jones Advisors